Mission Hills Haikou

World largest Golf Resort

These stunning 10 courses offer variety not only in design but also golfing challenges. From the signature Blackstone with its 7,100m design to the testing greens of Shadow Dunes and the Sandbelt Trails, golfers of all levels will enjoy their experience at Mission Hills Haikou. The centre of the complex is the 539 room Mission Hills resort hotel providing 5 star world class accommodation amidst its extensive lagoon pool, 220 hot and cold springs and exclusive spa facilities.

Shenzhou Peninsula Dunes

Top Course in Asia

These two links style courses wind their way along parts of the South China Sea offering some spectacular holes touching the exquisite beaches and bays. Designed by legendary Tom Weiskopf and his associate Phil Smith, they set out to create 36 holes memorable for their bunkering, contoured fairways, rugged, expansive native sand and exquisite ocean views. The courses feature holes run alongside the pristine beaches and bays, and offer inspiring views of the natural surroundings and rocky outcrops seen along the stunning coastline of the South China Sea.

Jian Lake Blue Bay Golf Club Hainan Island, China

Always A Class

Jian Lake praises the philosophy of "quality in details", which has successfully made Jian Lake a top golf club in China.

Built on and preserving the original millennium-old dunes at the beachside of Qingshui Bay, Hainan island, Jian Lake Blue Bay golf course features links golf elements, lava stones, bougainvillea - presenting a distinctive and exquisite "Parkland Links in Tropics". With sparse trees on the undulating lawn, and villages far away in the background, it could be a vision of primitive nature of humans for paradise.

WHAT OTHERS SAID

"Hello Sheri

I had an absolutely wonderful time with the recent AYM golf tour to Hainan.

The highlight were the 2 brilliant courses at Shenzhou, a tropical "Barnbougle" for sure.

The golf courses, accommodation and transports were fantastic, the weather, despite your efforts - was beyond your control.

You worked tirelessly to ensure we had a seamless trouble free trip, not easy with such a large group of people.

I would highly recommend AYM for anyone looking to arrange a golf trip privately or on a group package.

Many thanks again!"
